Where is home?

Port Douglas, Far North Queensland

What was the turning point or inspiration for your music?

In 1990 I experienced a period of ill-health and realised I needed to find the deeper reasons for it and not just treat the symptoms and so began a spiritual journey during which my gift of channeling emerged. I opened a healing practice in Sydney and in 2002, having received strong guidance that more people needed access to this work, The Sounds of Sirius recordings Starsong and Song of the Earth were released.

Favourite book?

Two books that made a big impact on me The Moon Under Her Feet by Clysta Kinstler and Cosmos of the Soul by Patricia Cori.

Favourite music?

I love Deva Premal's The Essence, Pia's Magical Eclipse and I adore Thomas Otten's Close to Silence.

Lucky charms?

A large blue lapis lazuli scarab which I've had set in a pendant. I like to wear it when I am channeling as it is reminiscent for me of the Ancient Egyptian priestess energies.

What spiritual practice or guiding belief makes you feel the most grounded?

I believe that all that we need for our enlightenment lies within us because each one of us carries a spark of Divinity. There is an important difference between religion and spirituality. Most of us have allowed others to 'tell' us what our connection to the Divine should be. What we need to do is to go inside and find the potency and beauty of that connection for ourselves.

Who are your role models, and why?

All working mothers - I am in awe of my beautiful sisters who can be mother, daughter, partner, friend and still manage to work full time as well.

Sacred language of Sirius brings soul healing, nourishment and comfort.

Many ask what exactly is this sacred language of Sirius, channeled through the melodies on these CDs? Lia tells us Spirit conveyed that this is the 'original' language - the root from which all language sprang. Interestingly, many have given her feedback that they recognise words in Arabic, Hebrew, Italian, Greek, Japanese to name a few. Lia suggests you resist any attempt to understand the language, for these are the words of the Divine Eternal Mother, which speak to the soul. At some level, the soul knows exactly what is being said. Whilst listening to these sacred harmonics of the Divine, many people experience emotional healing, past life recall, or other visionary experiences.
