

The Mirror CD

Lucinda Drayton

This collection of 11 new songs from Lucinda Drayton chart a period of great personal change and a time of loss and learning. There are lighthearted observations on being in the present (Sit Right Here), deeply emotional comments on the healing that comes after a relationship breakdown (At Least I Loved You) and joyful outpourings of spontaneous happiness (Let The Bells). The lyrics have an honest and real quality, and they avoid the clichés that so often characterise songs about love and loss. What makes this album so special is Lucinda’s ability to articulate such deep emotions through her writing and her beautiful voice. CD $29.95

Quantum Tarot

A Tarot of New Physics

Kay Stopforth

The Quantum Tarot is a stunningly beautiful new deck that explores the polar extremes of modern physics – the vast reaches of outer space and the ultra-microscopic world of subatomic space. Although the deck focuses on 21st-century physics, astronomy, and quantum mechanics, it combines these ideas with the traditional archetypes of a tarot deck so that anyone familiar with standard tarot decks can easily use it. Brilliantly incorporating modern physics into tarot archetypes (Big Bang theory for the Fool; the uncertainly principle for the Hanged Man; black holes for the Devil) this deck is sure to become a touchstone for modern and innovative tarot decks.
